

Thank you for your consideration in NESN. As a condition to our reviewing and considering your idea and/or materials, we ask that you acknowledge the following:

- NESN did not solicit your proposal, and by your submission thereof, you confirm that nothing therein is, or is required to be treated by NESN as confidential or proprietary (except to the extent such material may be protected by copyright or trademark law).
- NESN is not asking you to waive any copyright or trademark rights available to you by law. However, you acknowledge and agree that NESN's receipt and review of your idea does not mean that the underlying concept or other such material is unique or original, and that NESN may have previously created or may in the future independently create something that is substantially similar or identical to your idea, with no liability or obligation to you. Any review or consideration of your idea/material is at NESN's absolute sole discretion, and does not constitute or infer any obligation on NESN to accept your proposal or compensate you in any way.
- Because the material contained in your proposal is neither confidential nor proprietary, NESN is free to use any such material (except to the extent protected by copyright or trademark laws) without obligation or liability to you of any sort. To the extent, if any, that NESN may contact you in the future, you will not disclose to NESN any nonpublic, confidential or proprietary information, and any information you disclose to NESN may be used by NESN without obligation or liability to you of any sort (except to the extent such material may be protected by copyright or trademark law).
- If you are submitting your proposal on behalf of a company, you have the legal authority to bind that company to this agreement.
- Your submitted materials become the property of NESN and will not be returned to you unless you specifically make such a request and include the necessary means (e.g. postage, self-addressed packing) for NESN to return it to you. In such a case, NESN will make reasonable efforts to return the materials, however NESN is not responsible for any lost tapes or other submitted material.

NESN will not acknowledge or review your materials until we have received a signed original copy of this form from you (must be signed in ink and must be mailed, not faxed or e-mailed, to NESN).

If you agree to be legally bound to these terms, please sign where indicated below and return this document with your materials, marked Attn: Eric Haugen, Director of Programming. Please then allow six to eight weeks for NESN's response.

Sincerely,

Eric Haugen
Director of Programming
